TOP HONDA EXECUTIVE RESIGNS

A special meeting of the Honda Motor Co., Ltd. Board of Directors today (March 18) accepted the resignation of Executive Vice President Shoichiro Irimajiri because of health reasons.

The Board of Directors of Honda R&D Co., Ltd. of which Mr. Irimajiri was President, also accepted his resignation. Both boards announced that Mr Irimajiri will continue to remain on their respective Boards of Directors.

Honda Motor Co. President Nobuhiko Kawamoto said, "Mr Irimajiri's resignation under such extremely difficult circumstances is very unfortunate for our company, but we will do our best to unify our efforts to overcome this difficult situation."
